JAPANESE VICTORIES.

Chinamen Fleeing Before Their Conquerors.

MARCHING ONWARD TO MUKDEN.

While the Reported Capture of Port Arthur Is Unconfirmed, Other Japanese Successes Show That Their Adversaries Are Rapidly Weakening.

YOKOHAMA, Nov. 5.—Advises received here from the front show that there has been heavy fighting in the country just north of Port Arthur. The dispatches received are brief and are silent on some points. It appears that Field Marshal Oyama divided his forces. While one division landed on the east coast of the peninsula, north of Tallienwan, another division was detached with orders to effect a landing near Kinchow, and to proceed thence and join the main body of the army. This operation was a complete success. The Japanese encountered no Chinese warships, and the transports reached Kayenke and disembarked troops, guns, horses and munitions in safety.

Kinchow, which is a walled town and which was believed to be held by a large garrison, was immediately attacked. The outer defenses were carried by the Japanese after a few hours fighting. The Chinese made little further resistance, and the Japanese were soon masters of the place.

In the meantime the Japanese fleet which had conveyed the transports opened a heavy fire on Tallienwan and Kakuyon (Kayenke). The firing scarcely ceased for many hours. Covered by the fire from the ships the land force attacked and captured Tallienwan in a brilliant fashion. The dispatches state that the losses were heavy. They also mention that an important naval engagement occurred Saturday, but give no details. Up to the time of sending this dispatch there has been no confirmation of the reported capture of Port Arthur.

Field Marshal Yamagata's army continues its victorious march. The division under General Tatsuimi pushed forward and captured Fung Wang Ching, as already cabled to the Associated Press. The enemy was scattered and fled in the direction of Takusan, Kaijiao and Houtoufu. No fighting is mentioned as having occurred at Fung Wang Ching, but it is alleged that 300 Chinese were killed at Takusan.

Field Marshal Yamagata's official dispatch says that the detachment under General Tatsuimi has occupied Fung Wang Ching, a fort which ranks in importance next to Moukden. The principal portion of the Chinese army fled towards Moukden and the remainder in the direction of Huicheng and Takusan.

The Chinese inhabitants who have been plundered by the Chinese soldiers welcomed the Japanese army. The Japanese captures up to the present are fifty-five cannons, 1,500 small arms, 30,000 rounds of artillery ammunition, 25,000 rounds of small arms and a quantity of other material.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—A telegram has been received by the Japanese legation from Marshal Yamagata as follows: "On Oct. 21 the detachment under the command of General Tatsuimi took possession of Fung Wang, the most important stronghold held next to Moukden. The Chinese soldiers mostly fled toward Moukden, the rest in the direction of Huicheng and Takusan. The native inhabitants were suffering from plunder and devastation committed by the Chinese soldiers, and welcomed our army. The captures to date amount to 75 cannons and 1,500 arms, about 20,000 rounds of ammunition for the cannons and about 250,000 rounds for the other arms. Miscellaneous articles of immense quantity were captured."

Fung Wang Ching Turned by Chinese.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—A dispatch from Tientsin says that Fung Wang Ching was turned by the Chinese. The defense of the road to Moukden has collapsed. General Sung, with the remnant of his army, is in the Mathienling Pass, between Fung Wang Ching and Liaoyang. Winter has set in. Snow has fallen in Manchuria.

Tribesmen Routed by Britons.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—A dispatch from Quetta gives details of an attack of Waziri tribesmen upon the camp of the escort of the political officer who is engaged in the delimitation of the Waziristan-Punjab frontier. The escort was under the command of Colonel A. H. Turner. The Waziris crept up the ravines past the pickets, and a fierce hand to hand encounter followed. The tribesmen were pursued several miles and 250 of them were killed. The British loss was Lieutenant P. J. E. MacAuley, twenty-one soldiers and twenty-three followers killed, including two native officers, and a few officers and thirty-two men wounded.

Firemen Fatally Injured.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 5.—Fire broke out last evening in the building occupied by the Louisville branch of the Singer Sewing Machine Manufacturing company, at 352 Fourth avenue, and before the flames could be extinguished did about $50,000 worth of damage. Just as the firemen had the fire under control the rear wall of the Singer building fell and five firemen were caught under it and badly hurt. Two of them, Valentine Rich and James Mannix, may die.

UNITE ALL RELIGIONS.

Cardinal Gibbons Urges a Union in Bonds of a Common Faith.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—Cardinal Gibbons preached at the Cathedral yesterday on Christian unity. He said: "Thank God there is a yearning desire for the reunion of Christianity among many noble and earnest souls. This desire is particularly manifested in the English speaking world. It is manifested in England and in the United States. I myself have received several letters from influential Protestant ministers expressing the hope of a reunion and inquiring as to the probable basis of a reconciliation. Reunion is the great desire of my heart. I have longed and prayed for it during all the years of my ministry. I have prayed that as we are bound to our brethren by social and family and by natural and commercial ties, so may we be united with them in the bonds of a common faith."

The conditions of reunion are easier than are generally imagined. Of course there can be no compromise on faith or morals. The doctrine and moral code that Christ has left us must remain unchangeable. But the church can modify her discipline to suit the circumstances of the case.

"May the day be hastened when the scattered hosts of Christendom will be reunited. Then, indeed, they would form an army which infidelity and atheism cannot long resist, and they would soon carry the light and faith of Christian civilization to the most remote and benighted part of the globe. May the day soon come when all who profess the name of Christ may have one Lord, one faith and one baptism, when all shall be in one fold under one shepherd."

An Active Career Ends in Murder.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The James Wasson reported in a Jalapa, Mexico, dispatch as having killed his Mexican wife and himself is believed by army officers here to be the James R. Wasson formerly in the United States army. He was a volunteer soldier in the late war, and later entered West Point and graduated at the head of the class of which Fred Grant was a member. Resigning from the army he went to Japan and served as professor of engineering in the University of Tokio and also in the Japanese army. While in Japan Wasson married the daughter of United States Minister Bingham, who died a few years later. Returning to the United States he was in December, 1878, appointed a major in the pay department of the army, and while stationed in Texas was shot $20,000 of government funds. A court martial sentenced him to dismissal from the service and to a term in prison. He was pardoned before the term expired and went to Mexico.

Philadelphia's Latest Murder Mystery.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—John Harris, colored, aged 32 years, died in the Pennsylvania hospital yesterday as the result of fourteen gunshot wounds in the abdomen. He was found early in the morning on the front steps of a house in Lisle street, a small thoroughfare in the slums. The police say that the place is a gambling joint, and when a raid was made yesterday three men and five women were arrested there. Harris was brought to the hospital by five other colored men, who disclaimed all knowledge of the shooting, and they are also in custody. Harris was seen Saturday night with Samuel Smith, of Merchantville, N. J., who is said to be a dangerous character and especially fierce with his pistol. Smith is at large.

Death of a Noted Singer.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—A cablegram to General Agnus, from London, announces the death of Eugene Oudin. Mr. Eugene E. Oudin was born in New York, and was about 25 years old. From early childhood he displayed a wonderful taste for music, and as a boy was a noted chorister at Dr. Tinge's church. Mr. Oudin was a favorite pupil of Signor Moderati, and through the combined influence of his instructor and Signor Campanini adopted the stage. In London he has had phenomenal success, and his talent won for him a position on the social staff of the Prince of Wales. Mr. Oudin was the composer of many beautiful ballads, and also the author of the opera "Zaida."

Burglars Vanquished by a Woman.

DENVER, Nov. 5.—Mrs. James D. Scott, wife of the proprietor of the Capital Trust Exchange, vanquished three burglars who broke into her house during the night after a desperate fight, in which she was seriously injured. One of the men was armed with a revolver and a slung shot, and the third with a bill. With these weapons they rained blows upon her head and body, but she fought so courageously and raised such an outcry that they beat a retreat without taking any of the jewelry or other valuables lying about. The battle lasted nearly ten minutes, but Mrs. Scott did not faint until her assailants had gone.

SIGHTSEERS FATALLY INJURED.

An Awning Collapses with Several Hundred People Viewing a Parade.

TERRELL, Tex., Nov. 5.—The most disastrous accident in the history of this town occurred as the result of the collapse of an awning crowded with people to witness a circus parade. Five persons were fatally crushed and 100 others more or less seriously injured, many having legs and arms broken. Those whose recovery is considered doubtful are: Mrs. John Barry, back broken; Miss Florence Button, arm and leg broken; Josiah Barton, injured on side and head; Mrs. Roberts, injured internally; Mrs. Jeff Scott's baby, fatally crushed.

People from miles around had gathered to attend Sells Bros.' circus and witness the parade. The parade entered Moore's avenue, the principal business street of the town. That thoroughfare was crowded by people, and the awnings and windows of the second stories of the business houses were filled with spectators.

On the awnings of the Mississippi store, and in front of the dry goods house of Morris Brin, an unusually large number of people had congregated to get a good view of the parade. Five hundred or more were on the awning, and the sidewalk beneath was jammed.

The front of the circus parade had gone up Moore avenue until it had reached a point directly in front of the Mississippi store, when the awnings in front of the building and that of Morris Brin collapsed and tumbled to the sidewalk on the people beneath, who numbered 600 or 700. The awning gave way near the building with an awful crash, the iron columns falling inward and smashing the large plate glass fronts of both buildings. The picture presented an awful spectacle, as the moving avalanche of human beings were being dashed to a horrible fate.

The people beneath the awning were injured worse than those above, and had it not been for the first falling back of the iron pillars, which prevented the platform falling to the ground, many on the pavement would have been instantly killed and the number of injured increased two fold.

TRIAL OF THE "SANCTIFIED."

Charged with Separating Man and Wife and Being Nuisances.

ONANCOCK, Va., Nov. 5.—The trial of the leaders of the "Sanctified Band," who were indicted for being engaged in a conspiracy to separate man and wife, and for being nuisances, is attracting widespread attention here. Joseph B. Lynch and Workmen, the leaders of the band, it is shown by the evidence, have for years been inducing women to leave their unsanctified husbands and study the Bible with sanctified men. Lynch declares that this is the only way to raise a holy nation.

On Saturday Lynch, his co-worker, Sarah Collins, her husband, John Collins, and William Chandler, testified in their own behalf. Lynch gave an account of his doctrine of sanctification and said he was so pure and holy himself that he could not commit sin. He put his wife away and took Sarah Collins as co-worker because he was not married to his wife according to the law of God. His relations with Sarah Collins he testified were not improper.

Sarah Collins testified that she and her husband had agreed to put each other aside because they were not spiritually married. She denied that immorality was taught by the band and defended their doctrine. John Collins corroborated his wife's evidence and testified that he also took a sanctified co-worker. Leader Lynch's wife testified that she and her husband had put each other aside three years ago. She spoke kindly of her husband, who still supports her, and said she had also a co-worker.

All the witnesses testified that those who watched together kissed and hugged because the Bible commanded them to salute one another, but denied any wrongdoing.

Victimized the Farmers.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—In April last M. M. Browning and a young man whose name is not known opened a store for the sale of butter at 137 Margaretta street, in this city. Browning conducted the business here and sent the young man to the west to negotiate with the farmers for the sale of the product. He returned with a number of names on his list, and consignments of butter thereafter arrived from the west. Three weeks ago Browning suddenly left town and last Tuesday the young man followed, after closing the shop. Since their disappearance information has been received from farmers in northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin to the effect that Browning had failed to pay for consignments aggregating over $25,000 in value.

Probably Fatal Fire in Hartford.

HARTFORD, Nov. 5.—The five-story Neal, Goff & Inglis building, 128 to 132 Main street, was burned last night with a total loss of about $100,000, partially covered by insurance. Many of the guests of O. H. Miner's boarding house, at 432 Main street, had narrow escapes. Several of the twenty-five boarders were injured persons, and it is feared some did not escape. An aged couple were seen calling for help at a window, but soon disappeared. One old man fell on the way down stairs on the third floor, and was not seen to rise. Francis A. Cronin seized his sleeping child and rushed down the stairs, barely in time, followed by his wife.

TOMORROW'S ELECTIONS.

Thirty States Will Choose State Government.

ALL EYES ON THE EMPIRE STATE.

Republicans Claim the State by a Majority of 55,025, While Democrats Claim a Majority of 21,823—Prohibitionists and Populists Well Represented by Candidates.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The election this year is exciting outside of New York state only where the contest is with the Populists instead of between the old parties. It is a noticeable fact that there is less fusion than usual this year and the number of third and fourth party candidates is unusually large. The election of the representatives in congress will be held in all the states of the Union except Maine, Oregon and Vermont which have already chosen their congressmen. The territories of New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma and Utah will each elect one delegate to congress. The election of state officers, etc., will occur in thirty states. Legislatures will be elected in two others, and a constitutional amendment will be voted upon in one—Virginia.

In Colorado many of the city Populists have repudiated Governor Waite, but the party in the agricultural and mining districts seem more enthusiastic for him than 10 years ago. The fact that women will vote this year makes the outcome uncertain. In Tennessee the Republicans and Democrats have the field all to themselves, as the People's party in that state have endorsed the candidates on both tickets. In most of the western states where there was fusion last year each party is going it alone. In Nevada the silver men have nominated a straight ticket.

In every western state, and most of the middle and southern states, the People's party have nominated tickets. In some instances in the south the Republicans have endorsed the People's party candidates, and in South Carolina they have made no nominations at all. The Prohibitionists have placed tickets in every state except Nevada and Tennessee.

The last Sunday of the political campaign was an exceedingly dull day at the headquarters in this city of the various organizations. John Boyd Thacher was in charge of the Democratic state headquarters at the Park Avenue hotel, but he started for his home in Albany last night. Of the other managers who have been prominent here Major Hinckley will vote at Poughkeepsie, Mr. Huston in Pen Yan and Lieutenant Governor Sheehan in Buffalo.

Chairman Hackett will probably remain at the Republican headquarters at the Fifth Avenue hotel until after election day, having held his vote with some one at his home in Utica. Most of his lieutenants, including Mr. Kenyon, have already gone to their home districts.

The headquarters of the seventy's candidate for mayor, Colonel Strong, were closed yesterday. At the headquarters of Hugh J. Grant, in the Union Square hotel, there were a number of visitors, and the usual reports of resignations from the state Democracy were given out. It was announced that J. Rockwell Fay and a number of others had left the state Democratic organization in the Twenty third assembly district, and would support Grant.

Importance seemed to be attached to the assertion that Colonel Strong had written a letter to a police captain, asking him to have his men examine the registers of the polling houses in his precinct, so that intending voters, claiming residence there, whose names are not on the registers on election day, may be arrested.

At the State Democracy headquarters in East Twenty third street denial was made of the statement which has been generally made that the Tammany candidates for alderman and assemblyman in the Ninth assembly district have been endorsed by the State Democracy.

The World today says that during the past week it has been in communication with the chairman of the Democratic and Republican county committees throughout the state. It prints a table giving a resume of the claims made by both parties as to each of the pluralities for Hill or Morton, which indicates that the views taken by the chairman of the various Democratic county committees, David B. Hill will win by 21,823 plurality, while the chairman of the Republican committees having charge of their party's canvass in the sixty counties comprising the state claim that Levi P. Morton is to be next governor. They figure that he will have 55,025 plurality.

According to the Democratic estimates Morton, it is conceded, will carry the state outside of New York county by about 38,175. The Republicans claim that Morton's plurality above the Harlem bridge will be about 100,000. In other words, if Hill is to be the next governor he will have to carry New York county by about 40,000, according to the Democratic estimates, or by upward of 100,000 if the Republican figures as to the probable result for the rest of the state are correct.

PREPARING FOR THE INCOME TAX.

Superintendent Pushing the Preliminary Work Rapidly Forward.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The work preliminary to carrying into effect the new income tax is going forward as rapidly as its nature will permit, under the direction of Mr. William H. Pugh, who in October last was appointed superintendent of the income tax.

A number of complicated and interesting questions have arisen under former laws, and anticipating that questions will arise in the future of equal importance, it is essential for their solution to understand what has been the former legislation of congress, the decisions of the courts and the rulings of the department upon the subject of the income tax. With this view Mr. Pugh has been occupied since his appointment in examining and preparing a digest of the court decisions and department rulings, curtailed under their respective headings. He has also prepared a comparison of all the former laws upon the income tax, arranged so that all the provisions heretofore made upon the same subject shall appear properly grouped, and any one at a glance can see the various changes and modifications that have taken place.

Bomb Explosion in London.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—A bomb exploded last night outside a house in Tilney street, Park Lane, two doors from the residence of Hon. Sir Henry Hawkins, one of the justices of the Queen's bench division of her majesty's high court of justice. The front of the house was much damaged and the windows of houses on the opposite side of the street were smashed. The house was occupied, but nobody was hurt. The force of the explosion must have been great, as the door of the house was blown in and the stone steps shattered. A search revealed the remains of the bomb. Suspicion rests on a man who alighted in the vicinity of the house from a cab which had conveyed him from the Savoy hotel. He has not yet been arrested.

Killed by His Friend.

DAYTON, O., Nov. 5.—A tragedy was brought to light at Tadmire, a village ten miles north of Dayton. Conrad Augul, a prominent farmer, has been bothered by tramps, and on Wednesday night an attempt was made to burn his barn. Saturday night, hearing a noise, he opened a window and fired both barrels of a shotgun in that direction. In the morning he was horrified to find the body of his brother-in-law, John Fisher, lying dead across the doorstep. Fisher had called to pay him a visit. Augul is nearly crazed with grief, as the men were warm friends.

Services in Memory of the Czar.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Impressive services in memory of the late Alexander III, emperor of Russia, were held yesterday in both churches of the Greek orthodox faith in this city. Special prayers were offered up for the repose of the soul of the late czar. Mr. Olavsky, the Russian consul in New York, and other members of the consulate were in attendance. At the dawn town church the services were held in both the Russian and Greek languages.

A Little Boy's Fatal Fall.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Ellen Dennis, who lives on the fourth floor of 787 Second avenue, opened a rear window to obtain fresh air. Her 5-year-old boy, George, climbed up on a chair, and while his mother's attention was distracted leaned out on the sill. The boy lost his balance and fell. He struck on the stone pavement in the yard, where he was picked up lifeless. His head had been crushed.

To Inter the Ashes of Annie Pixley.

LONDON, Ont., Nov. 5.—Robert Fulford, husband of the late Annie Pixley, the actress, has arrived in this city with the ashes of his wife, whose body was cremated in England shortly after her death there about a year ago. Fulford's purpose is to inter the ashes beside the remains of his wife's only child, a son, who died in infancy.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was taken down with pneumonia, succeeding a grippa. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption, and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at McMonagle and Rogers' Drug Store. Regular size 50c, and $1.00.

NICOLAS' BRIDE-ELECT

Her Formal Reception Into the Orthodox Greek Church.

SHE IS NOT TO LEAVE RUSSIA.

It Is Now Asserted That the Royal Marriage May Take Place Immediately After Alexander's Funeral—Report That the Dead Czar Was Poisoned.

LIVADIA, Nov. 5.—The Grand Duke Alexis, brother of the late Czar Alexander, and the governor and mayor welcomed the Prince and Princess of Wales last night.

Czar Nicolas has conferred the decoration of the Order of St. Anne in diamonds on Professor Leyden, the German physician who attended the late czar. Professor Leyden has started on his return to Germany.

Princess Alix has been formally received into the orthodox church. The ceremony took place in the chapel of the imperial palace. She received the title of grand duchess in Russia, Blagovorozhja Velikaja Knagina. After the ceremony of confession she received the orthodox sacrament. The ritual observed required no denunciation of her former faith. The priest merely asked the princess to express her belief in the Trinity, and then to repeat the dogmas of the orthodox faith. She did so and was then by a priest into the church and up to a table on which were vessels containing consecrated oil. In the meantime a choir was singing Psalms. The princess knelt before the table. After the offering of prayers and the singing of hymns the priest said: "Arise, my beloved, arise in the fear of God."

The princess stood up and said: "I vow to remain steadfast in the orthodox Catholic church to my last breath. I vow that I acknowledge this faith and rejoice in obeying its laws. As a sign of this sincere vow, which comes from my heart, I kiss the cross of the Saviour. Amen."

Then she knelt and the priest gave absolution.

After numerous hymns and prayers, in which all the members of the czar's family were named, the priest anointed the princess with consecration oil on the temples, eyes, nose, lips, ears, hands and feet. Afterward he touched these parts with a sponge dipped in holy water.

He then proclaimed the princess' lawful conversion to the Russian orthodox church and exhorted those present to pray for her. It is now stated that Grand Duke Alexis Michaelovitch, who some years ago was disgraced and banished to the Caucasus, was not refused permission to see the late czar, as it was said at the time, and receive his forgiveness. The grand duke is suffering with consumption, and when he arrived he was too ill to land from the steamer on which he was traveling. His brother, Grand Duke Alexander, his brother's wife and Grand Duchess Xenia, went on board the steamer to meet him. In the afternoon he sailed for San Remo, Italy.

It is now said that Princess Alix will not leave Russia after the funeral. She will go to Moscow on a visit to her sister, Grand Duchess Sergius, and her marriage to Nicolas may take place after the funeral of Alexander.

Says the Czar Was Poisoned.

VIENNA, Nov. 5.—The Russian nihilist, Prince Peter Alisoff, residing at Lugano, avers that the czar was gradually poisoned with small doses of phosphorus administered to him by nihilists since March 1 until his disease was established. Those who managed to spice the emperor's dishes are safe away. He added that the whole Romanoff dynasty is doomed to a similar fate.

Accidentally Killed a Fellow Student.

LINCOLN, Ills., Nov. 4.—A terrible tragedy occurred on the campus of Lincoln university when R. G. Schaeffer, aged 25, shot and accidentally killed a fellow student, Vivian Church, 18 years old. A number of the students had nailed the door and the window leading to Schaeffer's room, fastening him within. Schaeffer got a revolver and fired to frighten the students. Just as the shot was fired Church ran in front of the window, the ball striking him in the region of the heart. Schaeffer was locked up, but was subsequently released, as the coroner's jury called him.

Disappointed Bank Burglars.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 5.—Robbers tried to rob the Christian Sawyer bank, Independence, early in the morning. When the bank was opened the vault door was found open with the lock broken off, and the papers and books in the vault were in confusion. The burglar proof safe was battered, and a part of the door gone, but the burglars failed to open it. Not a dollar was secured. There was $30,000 in the vault.

I most heartily recommend it to all who may be suffering from chronic malaria or biliousness."—Rev. E. J. Whitney. All druggists sell Gilmore's Aromatic Wine at $1.00 per bottle.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

For Governor, DAVID BENNETT HILL.
For Lieutenant-Governor, DANIEL N. LOCKWOOD.
For Judge of the Court of Appeals, CHARLES F. BROWN.
For Justice of the Supreme Court, EDGAR M. CULLEN.
For Representative in Congress, EUGENE S. IVES, of Rockland.
For Member of Assembly—First District, BENJAMIN McCLEUNG, of Newburgh.
For Member of Assembly—Second District, JOHN KINSILA, of Deerpark.
For County Judge, JOHN C. R. TAYLOR, of Middletown.
For Sheriff, GABRIEL TUTHILL, of Middletown.
For County Clerk, CHARLES KETCHUM, of Cornwall.
For Justice of Sessions, HENRY VAN DUZER, of Cornwall.
For Coroner, FRANK FLYNN, of Goshen.
For Superintendent of the Poor, GIDEON C. HARDING, of Mt. Hope.

It is no small thing for the Governor of a great State to say, as Governor Flower said Saturday of Hon. John Kinsila, that he had been a good and honest legislator, and that the people of this district would do well to send him back to Albany. Take the Governor's advice. Vote for honest John Kinsila.

Ingham Stuble, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, member of the Republican County Committee and Secretary of the Republican City Committee of Newburgh, says "the best conceivable estimate for Orange county will be 675 majority for Morton." That's a great come down from the plurality of 2,780 given Palmer last year and is less than half what was claimed a month ago. We've got 'em on the run, boys. We can carry the county for the whole ticket if every Democrat does his duty.

"Gabe" Tuthill was a member of the citizens' committee which raised the money that made the big fire parade of last year possible. No member of that committee worked harder than Mr. Tuthill and he is entitled to the hearty gratitude of firemen and citizens. Now there is a chance to give practical expression to that gratitude, and we are glad to know that firemen propose to stand by their friend and that, regardless of party lines, Mr. Tuthill will receive the votes of nearly all members of the Middletown fire department.

If the taxpayers of Orange county are mindful of their own interests and wish to keep the taxes for the support of the poor down to the lowest possible figure they will vote for Gideon O. Harding for Superintendent of the Poor. He held the office for one term and was a model official, careful and prudent in the expenditure of the people's money, scrupulously honest and always watchful of the people's interests, yet at the same time kind and considerate in his treatment of the unfortunate who were dependent on the county's charity. He is the man for the place. Vote for him.

Vote against the Constitutional Amendments. There will be five amendment ballots. Two relate to the courts and were proposed by concurrent resolution of the Legislature. The others are proposed by the Constitutional Convention. The general amendments, those relating to the judiciary, pool selling, education, etc., are grouped together. Another amendment relates to the canals and the other is the apportionment iniquity. Be sure to vote against that. A failure to vote against it is in effect a vote for it. Its defeat is more important than the election of the Democratic candidates. Vote against all the amendments. There is some good in the general amendments but more harm than good. But whatever you do vote against the apportionment.

As between John C. R. Taylor and John J. Beattie the issue is plain. Judge Beattie believes in big pay for little work. He heartily and unreservedly endorsed the scheme to raise salaries that was killed, last winter. He refused for months to be a candidate for re-nomination, asserting that the Judge's salary ought to be $3,000 instead of $1,500. He was persuaded by the Republican managers to go on the ticket, and it is asserted that he was promised a raise of salary. It is certain that he has not at any time put himself on record as willing, if elected, to serve out his term at $1,500 a year salary. He is in shape to take any amount of salary that may be allowed. Mr. Taylor believes $1,500 ample pay for all the work that the County Judge has to do, and has pledged himself, if elected, not to ask for or accept a larger salary. Mr. Taylor is Judge Beattie's equal in personal character and legal attainments and will make just as good a Judge. Vote for Mr. Taylor and against high salaries for county officers who do little work.

Charles Ketcham, during his long service in the Board of Supervisors, demonstrated to the people of Orange county his ability, his integrity and his fitness and aptitude for the public service. He is familiar with county affairs and with the duties of the County Clerk's office. If elected, he will make one of the best County Clerks the county has ever had. Vote for him.

John Kinsila represented this district in the Assembly of 1893, and made one of the best members we have ever sent to Albany. He was faithful in the discharge of duty, watchful of the interests of the district, honest at all times and under all circumstances. Vote to send him back.

The Democratic candidates for local offices have a special claim, this year, on party loyalty and a special right to ask hearty party support. They accepted nominations at a time when victory seemed impossible, and when to become a candidate involved no little personal sacrifice. In some instances, the only consideration that led to the acceptance of a nomination, was an unselfish willingness to help preserve the party organization. Remember this, Democrats, and now that the skies are brightening with the promise of victory, let no consideration prompt you to withhold your vote from the candidates of your party, who have made sacrifices for it.

MORE ABOUT

CHILDREN'S CLOTHING.

WE Wish to be distinctly understood in regard to our selling children's clothing without profit, that it is the very identical stock we formerly sold at a profit, that has been marked down in plain figures to the exact wholesale price. Under this new order of things you pay for one suit only what we pay for the same when we buy them from the manufacturer by the hundred. And when this stock is gone, which won't be long, we shall replace it by one equally as good, if not better. No inferior goods, because we sell without profit. We are willing to wait for our profit until the child grows out of his knickerbockers and buys his own clothes, for we are sure he will trade where his parents have traded for him and that he will be satisfied that he will receive the same careful attention when he pays his own bills that he and his parents received, and he will not be mistaken.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN.

Virgil Monell Knocked Down and Badly Hurt at an Erie Crossing.

Shortly after midnight, Saturday night, Virgil Monell, a well known character about town, was struck by a west bound freight train at the West Main street crossing. The police and patrol were notified at once, but upon their arrival at the crossing found that the man had been removed by his friends.

Monell's family did not know of the accident until about 9 o'clock, next morning, when his mother found him in bed with his head tied up with a towel. He could give no explanation as to how he was hurt or when or how he got home.

Doctors Nelson and Spiegel were sent for at once. They found a scalp wound which required seven stitches to close it; also that several ribs were broken and one leg badly bruised.

Monell's injuries may prove more serious than at first anticipated.

GOV. FLOWER IN MIDDLETOWN.

A Large Crowd Present to Hear Him Speak for senator Hill and the Cause of Democracy—His Speech—End of a Remarkable Tour.

Gov. Flower, who started out, Monday of last week, on a speaking tour of the State, reached Middletown at 3:55, Saturday afternoon. A very large crowd, not less than 1,000 people, was at the Erie depot to see and hear him.

The Governor was very hoarse, and small wonder, for speaking in the open air is very trying to the voice, and Middletown was the fifty-third place in which he had spoken during the week. He nibbled at a lemon as he spoke in the hope of getting rid of the huskiness in his voice, but the huskiness was too deep seated to be relieved by lemons or anything but rest, and it was very difficult for even those but a short distance from the Governor to hear what he said.

Gov. Flower was nearly cheered as he appeared on the platform of the car and was cheered frequently during the progress of his speech.

The Republican who feels called on to interrupt Democratic meetings with insulting jibes was on hand as usual.

GOV. FLOWER SAID:

FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS:—I am glad of this opportunity to speak to you. I see in this large assembly, and others like unto it that I have seen this week wherever I have stopped, an assurance of Democratic interest, enthusiasm and confidence.

My friend, Chauncey Depew, who was here, this week, told you a tale of ruin and calamity, which he claimed was due to Democratic tariff reform and Democratic blunders that he would not have dared to tell his own railroad boys and along his own railroad. In all the places I have visited, this week, I have found business of all kinds good, factories and workshops busy. There are no hard times now. Confidence has been restored and American energy and pluck are doing the rest.

Mr. Depew knows as well as I do that the real cause of the business depression was the Sherman bill. It destroyed confidence in the stability of our currency. Every one of us who had a dollar in bank, last summer, wanted to draw out. We all made the panic. The Sherman silver bill destroyed confidence because it was believed that silver could not be maintained at a parity with gold. So gold began to leave the country. Every one wanted to draw their money from the banks. The bankers were scared and would lend no one a dollar. Credit, the foundation of business, was destroyed. The Sherman bill was passed by Republican votes. Reed and McKinley voted for it, not a single Democrat. Harrison signed it. I was in Congress at the time and know whereof I speak.

The Democrats repealed this bill and that was the first step toward restoring confidence and prosperity. And in the Senate of the United States no man did more to make that repeal possible than our standard bearer, David B. Hill.

I want to say a word to you in behalf of John Kinsella. He represented you at Albany two years ago and was a good member. He is an honest man. Send him back.

A word about the constitutional amendments, devised by Republican lawyers and put through by the Republican caucus. Do you understand about caucuses? Individuals have consciences, caucuses are conscienceless. Measures that individuals would revolt at are decided on in caucuses and are then "put through regardless" and "bound by caucus action" is the excuse made for participation in the inquiry. The Constitutional Convention was a lawyers' convention. The lawyers were out of a job and so they made places for lawyers, forty more Assembly men, eighteen more judges.

Vote down their work. It strikes a blow at your county fair. I've attended a good many county fairs and they are good things for the farmers. They broaden them and give them new ideas. The best and most progressive farmer in the world are in the Empire State and we don't want anything that will injuriously affect any of the farmers' interests. Vote against the amendments.

The old constitution is good enough. The proposed changes will increase your taxes half a million dollars. The laws as they now are are strong enough. They were strong enough to suppress incendiarism and violence at Buffalo, and leave labor and capital to settle their differences. Our educational system is stable and strong enough. It needs—

Here a man who had several times interrupted the Governor broke in again with a question. There was an apparent disposition on the part of the crowd to suppress the fellow as a nuisance, but the Governor said, "Never mind, I'm the Governor of the whole people." Then another voice shouted, "How about the A. P. A.?" and the Governor said:

About the A. P. A. This is a government founded on civil and religious liberty. There is no greater blessing than religious liberty. The cross of our Savior, taken to Rome, was buried in the catacombs for years. I have been there myself and seen the dark crypts in which the early Christians worshipped. Not till the time of Constantine did the sunlight fall upon that cross. Now it lights up every valley and every hill top. I care not by what name a Christian calls himself or with what sect or denomination he is identified. The same echo of glory to God on high is heard in the brass bugling of the Salvation Army as in the heavy artillery of the Methodists. The same spirit animates the naval squadron of the Baptists as the army of the church militant. To attempt to make religious belief a test of political preference is intolerant and un-American—a blow at the right to worship God according to the dictates of your own conscience that is one of the inestimable blessings of American citizenship. I glory in the fact that the Democratic party stands today as it has always stood for civil and religious freedom. No harm has ever befallen this country from religious freedom. None ever can befall it so long as the cross is our emblem and charity our motto.

At the close of his speech, Gov. Flower introduced Civil Service Commissioner DeForest Van Fleet, of Ithaca. He was almost as hoarse as the Governor, but he spoke with force and earnestness, making an excellent speech that abounded in strong points.

Governor Flower spoke at Goshen, Monroe, Tuxedo and Suffern, reaching New York in time to cross to Brooklyn and make a short speech at the meeting at which Speaker Crisp spoke, Saturday night.

OBITUARY.

Frances Wells Holbert.

Mrs. Frances Wells Holbert, widow of the late Adrian Holbert, died Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the residence of her niece, Mrs. Samuel M. Slaughter, near Crystal Run, aged eighty-two years, ten months and eighteen days. General debility was the cause of death.

Mrs. Holbert is survived by two half sisters, Mrs. Milton Ford, of Newark, N. J., and Miss Elizabeth Wells, of Goshen.

She was for seventy years a devoted member of the Goshen Presbyterian Church.

The funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. Slaughter, Wednesday morning, at 10 o'clock. Interment in Union Cemetery, near Slate Hill.

AN UNPLEASANT EXPERIENCE.

Covered by a Gun in the Hands of a Drunken Man.

Thomas Watts, Esq., in company with several ladies, was walking up the West Main street hill, Saturday evening, and when near the residence of Mr. I. Willis Crans, a drunken man, who was coming down the hill, accosted the party and leveled a shot gun at Mr. Watts. The ladies were badly frightened, and Mr. Watts finally induced the man to lower the weapon. He followed the man and caused his arrest.

This morning, when arraigned before the Recorder, the complaint was withdrawn by Mr. Watts and the prisoner was discharged with a severe reprimand upon the payment of costs. The gun was not loaded, but the law makes it a misdemeanor to point a firearm at any one, whether the weapon is loaded or not.

The man was very penitent and apologized to Mr. Watts for his misconduct.

A BOARDING HOUSE BURNED.

"The Moscow," at Livingston Manor, Totally Destroyed.

"The Moscow," one of the largest boarding houses in the vicinity of Livingston Manor, was destroyed by fire, early Sunday morning.

The flames had gained such head way when discovered that the occupants had barely time to escape in their night clothing.

The one fire company in the village turned out, and seeing that "The Moscow" was doomed devoted their efforts to the saving of the Fitzgerald residence, but twenty feet distant, in which they succeeded.

A RUNAWAY CAR.

The Brakes Refused to Work and the Car Dashed Down Mechanicstown Hill at Frigidity Speed—A Young Man Thrown Off and Injured.

Yesterday afternoon, as car No. 15 W. W. Everett, conductor, Theo. Hulise, motorman, was descending the Mechanicstown hill, the brake refused to work, and the car dashed down the hill at very high speed, striking the curve with great force. Fortunately it did not leave the rails, but it had attained such momentum that it ran to the switch in the glen, before it could be stopped.

Charles Jacobus, who was on the rear platform, jumped from the car near the foot of the hill and was thrown upon a pile of stones. He received two cuts, one above the eye, and the other on the side of the head, both of which required several stitches to close the wounds.

During the excitement, a young lady on the car fainted. The car was run to the park and the lady was taken into the restaurant, where she soon recovered.

THE NEW ELECTRIC CARS.

One in Use, To-day—To Be Run on the Cross-Town Line.

Car No. 11, one of the new vestibuled cars, received, Saturday, has been running on the cross-town line, to-day. This gives an additional closed car on the Asylum line, much to the satisfaction of patrons on that route.

It is intended to put the new cars in readiness for use as soon as possible and to call in the open cars. It is understood that the new cars will be put on the cross-town line.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN COSHEV.

To Try for a Clean Election—Gov. Flower's Speech—Crescent Club Meetings.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—It is claimed that there has been considerable illegal registration in this village, this year. The managers of the Democratic campaign will see that no illegal votes get in ballot box and any one caught voting illegally will be quickly dealt with. Buyers of votes will be closely watched by leading people and an effort will be made to have a clean election in spite of Morton's "barral" and Odeil's boodle.

—Gov. Flower was greeted by a big crowd, Saturday afternoon. From the rear of the special train he made a good strong argument in favor of Democracy and although very hoarse gained many votes for the ticket. "Doctor" Powers introduced the speaker in well chosen words. The Governor was heartily cheered and applauded during his speech, which was first class and to the point.

—Dr. Parker, of Poughkeepsie, was the guest of Dr. E. G. Parker, yesterday.

—The first regular meeting of the Crescent Social and Athletic Club will be held at the rooms, to night, at 8:30. All members are requested to be present.

PUBLIC VOICE.

None So Blind as Those Who Will Not See.

EDITORS ARGUE:

"The river Rhine, it is well known, Dots wash your city of Cologne; But tell me, Nymphs! what power di vine Shall henceforth wash the river Rhine?"

The Rev. Mr. Clark, of the Goshen Presbyterian Church, lifted up his voice, last night, in denunciation of political corruption and in endorsement of the constitutional amendments. In able and eloquent words he thundered against corrupt political methods and corrupt political leaders, in State and nation, but not a word did he have to say against the corrupt methods and corrupt leaders who, for years, have made merchandise of the suffrage in Goshen, and who have bought citizens like cattle until Goshen politics are a reproach and a shame, a by word wherever the name in Goshen is known. Does not the reverend gentleman know what is going on here? Is he so busy looking for corruption in high places that he cannot see the rottenness under his own nose?

PURE POLITICS.

The Old Board Will Win.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 5.—It would seem no matter what way Judge Foster may decide in the Santa Fe case at Topeka, the old board of directors will be re-elected. Supporters of the present board of directors say that whatever the decision may be the victory will be theirs. Had it not been that it might be deemed disrespectful to the court they might have gone and elected their ticket last Thursday.

The prospects for November favor steady work in nearly all branches.

The Investigation Postponed.

Murdered by Poison.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—For the purpose of gaining possession of the $1,200 which Michael Santusoso, an Italian restaurant at Seventh and Fitzwater streets, is believed to have had in his pockets, two men poured poison into his beer and killed him. His body was found lying partly under the table near which he sat when last seen in an animated conversation with his drinking companions. The murdered man was 45 years old, and married. Nothing is known as to the identity of the murderers beyond the fact that they were Italians.

War on Madagascar.

PARIS, Nov. 5.—The government has received a dispatch from M. le Myre de Vilers, the French special commissioner to Madagascar, announcing the fact that he left Antananarivo, the capital of Madagascar, on Oct. 26, without receiving the reply of the Hova government to the French ultimatum. A cabinet council was held at the Palace of the Elysee, at which it was decided to submit to the chamber of deputies resolutions declaring war against Madagascar, and demanding credits to carry it on.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

THE COMMON COUNCIL.

PROCEEDINGS OF AN ADJOURNED SESSION.

The Benton Avenue Paving—Cost of Orchard Street Pavement—Charges Preferred Against Capt. Grier—Certificates of Indebtedness to Be Re-deemed—A Resignation Accepted—War on Low Theatricals—Additional Arc Lamps—Bills Audited.

An adjourned session of the Common Council was held, Saturday night. Present, President Dorrance and Aldermen Bowler, Funnell, Greene, Ludington, Mance and Reed. Mr. A. M. Horton asked for a sewer for his property, corner Knapp avenue and Hanford street.

On motion of Mr. Mance the street superintendent was directed to repair the gutter at the corner of Lake and Walkhill avenues.

On motion of Mr. Mance the City Engineer was directed to repair the North street pavement where necessary and deduct the cost from the amount due the contractor.

On motion of Mr. Mance the pavement laid by Orr Bros, was accepted.

THE BENTON AVENUE PAVING.
A petition signed by residents of Benton avenue asked for the passage of an order to pave the street, the work to be commenced on the first of May, 1895.

On motion of Mr. Greene the work was ordered to be done on the date named in the petition.

A bond of E. A. Brown for $2,000 for the maintenance of the asphalt pavement was filed and accepted.

On motion of Mr. Mance the execution of a deed for the city lot to Mrs. Williamson, by the Mayor, was approved.

The execution of the deed of Timothy Cashman for a portion of the lot for the widening of Railroad avenue, was approved.

COST OF ORCHARD STREET PAVEMENT.

The final estimates for the Orchard street paving showed the total cost to be $2,963.53, of which $2,115 has been paid; $148.18 is retained under contract, leaving $700.40 due Orr Brothers, and on Mr. Mance's motion a draft for that amount was ordered.

CHARGES AGAINST CAPT. GRIER.

Mr. Ludington presented the following charges against Capt. Grier: To the Mayor and Common Council.

GENTLEMEN:—At a special meeting of the Council held Oct. 25, 1894, to investigate charges preferred against Police Officers Wilson and Sharpe, Police Captain James A. Grier was called to the stand and to the Council and made a false statement (which I am ready to prove), and for the sole purpose of covering up his own gross and intentional neglect of duty.

I therefore prefer charges against said Capt. James A. Grier. I wish it distinctly understood these charges are not made through malice but for good discipline, which we all (the public as well) want and have a right to exact. Very truly yours,

A. E. LUDINGTON,
Alderman First Ward,
Middletown, N. Y., Oct. 29, 1894.

Mr. Bowler moved that a special meeting to take action on the charges be held Thursday evening, but the motion was lost.

Mr. Greene moved that a committee of two be appointed to wait upon Capt. Grier and notify him of the charges preferred against him. This was also lost.

On Mr. Mance's motion it was voted to hold a special meeting Thursday evening.

THE MAYOR TO INVESTIGATE.

Later, on Mr. Greene's motion, the resolution to hold a special meeting was rescinded, and the charges against Capt. Grier were referred to the Mayor for investigation and such action as he may see proper.

On motion of Mr. Greene the clerk was directed to notify property owners on Prince, Cottage and Broad streets, to flag their walks within ten days.

Action of fire companies at last regular meetings was confirmed.

TO REDEEM CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS.

On motion of Mr. Mance certificates of indebtedness Nos. 54, 31, 32, 33 and 156 were ordered taken up and drafts ordered in payment.

On motion of Mr. Sinsabaugh it was ordered that $25 or $30 be expended in improvements at Thrall Park.

A petition of Jacob Newman to run a car wagon on the street was laid on the table.

WAR ON LOW THEATRICALS.

The resolution of H. T. Ostrander as Secretary of the Middletown Fire Department was read and accepted.

The following petition was read, with a accompanying letter, asking the Council to take action in regard to Sunday liquor selling, and referred to the Police Committee.

Petition 2—That an ordinance be passed whereby no person will be allowed to post upon our bill boards, posters of a low or obscene character, advertising low theatricals and shows of any kind and the breaking of such law to be punishable by a fine.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. FRANK E. BURR,
Mrs. ZADIE LUDINGTON,
Mrs. ANNA L. VAN FLEET,
Mrs. SARAH WOOD.

On motion of Mr. Bowler the street superintendent was directed to put the topes along the mill pond on Monday morning in order.

On motion of Mr. Ludington it was ordered that Low avenue be curbed and guttered on both sides, a distance of 180 feet, beginning at North street.

On motion of Mr. Bowler the street superintendent was directed to furnish a list of sidewalks needing repairs and that they be put in repair at once.

On motion of Mr. Ludington a crosswalk was ordered on Wisner avenue at the junction of Cottage street.

ADDITIONAL ARC LAMPS.

Four of the five additional arc lamps to be furnished the city by the Electric Light Co. under the terms of its franchise were located as follows: Corner Linden and Wickham avenues; Genuing street and Academy avenue; Canal and Fulton streets; Low avenue and North street. The fifth lamp will be put up in the First Ward.

VOCAL CULTURE AND ELOCUTION

Advantages offered in these branches at the Misses Porter's School, 375

The Misses Porter offer superior advantages in vocal music and elocution in their school, as they have secured accomplished and experienced teachers, who are ready to give thorough instruction in these departments. Miss Anna Mack, the vocal teacher, has studied with the best masters of Germany, also with Max Maretzek, of New York.

Miss Emily F. Smith, a graduate of the Boston School of Oratory, and who has later studied at the Boston School of Expression, is, therefore, prepared to give the best instruction in the various branches of elocution, including the Delsarte training and philosophy. The Sargent method of physical culture is also taught by Miss Smith.

The St. John Sun said of Miss Mack, on the occasion of her appearance in a concert in this city:

An immense audience, numbering in the vicinity of two thousand persons, assembled, last night, to hear the programme prepared for the mammoth concert. Miss Mack made her appearance in St. John on this occasion and her singing fairly justified all the expressions of praise bestowed upon her elsewhere. She is a stowed upon her stage presence and her voice is sweet and true. She sang her selections so well that she was obliged to respond to an enthusiastic encore.

TRUTH IN ADVERTISING

is one of the channels by which the public is led to have confidence in a business man.

We are not selling children's clothing at or below cost to us, but the more we sell the more profit we make.

However, we are still in the clothing business, selling the good grades at the lowest possible prices.

A business man's reputation, along with his chances for success, is at stake with every sale; and, realizing this, when we once serve a customer we rarely lose him.
